Notes from Father PJ

Dear Friends in Christ,

Peace!

There are two Roman Catholic Bishops in the United States named David O'Connell. One is from the East Coast, and the other was from the West Coast. One was an Auxiliary Bishop, and the other is our own Bishop. One comes from a Religious Order (Vincentians), and the other was diocesan. The David O'Connell, who was in Los Angeles, CA, figured prominently in the news last month with his tragic death. Both bishops are of Irish heritage, and both bishops are deeply loved and respected by the people they served.

His Excellency Most Reverend David M. O'Connell is the Tenth Bishop of the Diocese of Trenton. His extensive and impressive biography can be found in the Diocesan Website. Bishop O'Connell was appointed Coadjutor Bishop to our diocese on June 4, 2010. He was ordained to the episcopacy by Bishop John M. Smith in St. Mary of the Assumption Cathedral, Trenton, on July 30, 2010. I am blessed to say that I was there to witness his episcopal consecration. When Pope Benedict XVI accepted the resignation of Bishop Smith on Dec. 1, 2010, Bishop O'Connell automatically succeeded him as the 10th Bishop of Trenton.

Excerpts from his biography are as follows: "In December 2014, Bishop O'Connell was stricken with a near-fatal bone infection necessitating the amputation of his left leg. The Bishop engaged in an aggressive physical therapy program for the following three months after being fitted with a prosthetic leg. He set a goal to celebrate Palm Sunday Mass 2015 in Cathedral, a goal he was grateful to realize. The Bishop then returned to full, active service, resuming his ordinary, ambitious daily schedule."

Bishop O'Connell continues his episcopal ministry and outreach to the clergy, religious and faithful of the four counties of Diocese of Trenton, striving to bear joyful witness to his episcopal motto "Ministrare non ministrari: to serve and not to be served."

We warmly welcome our dear Bishop to our Parish this weekend for his Lenten Visit. Six parishes from our diocese were accorded with this honor and blessing for the duration of the Lenten season. We are deeply grateful to our Bishop for including us in his schedule. On Saturday, his visit is serendipitously celebrated with the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord. That is nine months before Christmas Day. (Thus, if there is a Father Christmas, we have the presence of Bishop Christmas, with utmost and due respect to Bishop O'Connell, if I may call him such, this weekend.)

Have a prayerful, reflective, and holy Lenten Season, dear friends.

In the fellowship of life and love,

Fr. PJ

"What does Jesus Christ do in the Eucharist? It is God who, as our Savior, offers himself each day for us to his Father's justice. If you are in difficulties and sorrows, he will comfort and relieve you. If you are sick, he will either cure you or give you strength to suffer so as to merit Heaven. If the devil, the world, and the flesh are making war upon you, he will give you the weapons with which to fight, to resist, and to win victory. If you are poor, he will enrich you with all sorts of riches for time and eternity. Let us open the door of his sacred and adorable Heart, and be wrapped about for an instant by the flames of his love, and we shall see what a God who loves us can do. O my God, who shall be able to comprehend?" - St. John Vianney
