Notes from Father PJ

Dear Friends in Christ,

Peace!

To all our mothers in this world and those already in the next, to those who took the role of being mothers, to our spiritual mothers, a Blessed and Happy Mother's Day.

Here's a Mother's Day Creed from Anonymous, an unknown author. (Yep, whoever he/she is who signs his/her poem as Anonymous is actually Famous).

A MOTHERS' DAY CREED

I believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God, who was born of the promise to a virgin named Mary.

I believe in the love Mary gave her Son, that caused her to follow Him in His ministry and stand by His cross as He died.

I believe in the love of all mothers, and its importance in the lives of the children they bear.

It is stronger than steel, softer than down, and more resilient than a green sapling on the hillside.

It closes wounds, melts disappointments, and enables the weakest child to stand tall and straight in the fields of adversity.

I believe that this love, even at its best, is only the shadow love of God, a dark reflection of all that we expect of Him in this life and the next.

And I believe that one of the most beautiful sights in the world is a mother who lets this greater love flow through her to her child, blessing the world with the tenderness of her touch and the tears of her joy.

Thank God for mothers, and thank mothers for helping us understand God!

Next Saturday, May 20th is Phil's Ordination to the Permanent Diaconate at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption in Trenton at 10 A.M. If you haven't attended an ordination yet, this is our opportunity and blessing. You are most welcome to witness this sacred event and a significant milestone in Phil's life. We'll also have the Thanksgiving Mass for him on the next day, same time, at our Church. Reception follows at the Parish Hall after Mass.

Keep well and regards.

With my prayers,

Fr. PJ

"Ave Maria:" May is the Month of Mary, our Blessed Mother by Bishop O'Connell

Hail Mary, full of Grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Most Catholics have learned and recited this prayer from their earliest days. It is a beautiful prayer that affirms the nature of our relationship with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God and Mother of the Church. It saddens me greatly when I visit with young school children – and even some adults – and they don't know that prayer or, worse, don't seem to understand "why" Catholics say it.

St. Bernard of Clairvaux (1090-1153) was a French Cistercian monk, theologian, preacher and reformer in the early Middle Ages who was well known – among many things – for his great devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. He authored the Marian prayer so familiar to us known as The Memorare and numerous other homilies, hymns, and treatises about her. In De Maria, he famously wrote, "numquam satis" ... "about Mary, never enough (can be said)."

Love for Mary, the Blessed Mother of the Lord Jesus Christ, is as natural to the Catholic as love for one's own mother. Mary is, after all, the mother of the Lord and he is, at once, our Savior and our brother. "We never give more honor to Jesus than when we give honor to his mother, and we honor her simply and solely to honor him all the more perfectly. We go to her only as a way leading to the goal we seek, Jesus her Son" (St. Louis Marie de Montfort).

We worship him as God. We love her as his mother. Read The Bishop's whole message here:

May Crowning and Procession

Please join us as we celebrate this special occasion in honor of our Blessed Mother. Our May Crowning and Rosary Procession will be held on SATURDAY, May 20, 2023, 5:15PM, after the 4:00PM Mass.

Our procession will start at front of the Church to Mother Mary's grotto by the Rectory where we will crown Mother Mary's statue and recite the Rosary.

Fellowship to follow in the Parish Hall. All are welcome to bring flowers for the procession and a food item to share for the fellowship. For questions, please contact the Legion of Mary, Carlos Diaz (732) 962-3323 or via email: cdiazjr@optonline.net We hope to see you there.
