Notes from Fr PJ

Dear Friends in Christ,
Peace!

It has been 50 days since Easter Sunday, when we celebrated the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. This weekend we have a double celebration—one religious, and the other civil.

Pentecost—the birthday of the Church. Memorial Day (on Monday actually, but celebrated with parades, barbecues, parties and the beginning of summer warmth and fun) – the memory/ies of those who gave their lives for our country.

Through the guidance and the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit, we are given the impetus, power and responsibility to proclaim in words and deeds the Good News of our salvation. Just like looking at a newborn baby, our celebration gazes at the birth of our Church with a look that is more than caring and loving, and with hopes and wishes for a bright future.

There won't be cakes and candles to blow on "our" birthday. It is the Spirit who blows itself to us, with hopes that we will be blown away by God's life and love.

Shifting gears, the memories of those we hold dear to us and for the sacrifices they did for the service of our country is more lasting than ever, once placed in a perspective that is Godly and spiritual. Those memories last forever and surpass every monument erected, every book written and every street named after them.

A Blessed Pentecost, dear friends! A happy and safe Memorial Day weekend!

With my prayers,

Fr. PJ
