Notes from Fr PJ

Dear Friends in Christ,

Peace!

Let's backtrack a little bit.

Two weeks ago, we heard from the Gospel of Matthew the list of the Twelve Apostles. Jesus commissioned them to go out among the people, and to teach and heal. Last week, they were told not to fear anyone or anything. (If you happened to read my letter last week, I also listed there reasons why we should not fear. But if you were away, I'll just summarize it in one sentence—God loves each one of us immensely, and if we love Jesus in return as He loves us, then there is no reason to fear).

This week, Jesus is challenging us about our worthiness to love our Lord, based on how we feel about our family members. Now, that's quite a challenge. I could just hear some of us asking, "Does that mean, Jesus, that I should not love my father or mother? Does that mean, Jesus, that I should not love my son or daughter?" Nope, Jesus did not tell us that way. He added the words—more than me. We should love our family members, as we should. But, and here's the big but, not more than Jesus.

Nothing and no one should get in the way of loving and prioritizing Jesus. This is the spiritual order of priorities—Jesus, Others, You. J.O.Y., as the initials line up. Keeping them in order is the norm, not just the ideal. Disordering them leads to an abnormality. "Others" could mean other people, and so, when others are prioritized more than Jesus, then there is no J.O.Y., but O.J.Y. And how about the egotists and the self-absorbed? Again, no J.O.Y.. It could be Y.J.O. or Y.O.J. (the saddest inversion).

Take care and regards!

With my prayers,

Fr. PJ

We welcome Fr. Bob Grodnicki to our parish.
In June, Fr Bob retired as Pastor of St. Luke in Toms River.
Fr Bob will be celebrating three Masses in July.

St. Veronica Parish Mission Statement

We, the Parish Family of Saint Veronica, are called through Baptism to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ in faith, hope and love.

We strive toward deeper conversion by active participation in the Eucharist and by being good stewards to one another.

Through vibrant evangelization, a welcoming community and Spirit-led service we continually challenge ourselves to bear the face of Jesus like our patroness did as we journey together in unity, to the glory and honor of God.

Did you know that this June 2023 was the 3rd anniversary of Live stream at St Veronica

Apostles of the Resurrection Promise of Commitment

On Sunday, June 25, 2023, 7 women from St. Veronica's made their Promise of Commitment as Apostles of the Sisters of the Resurrection. Sr. Ann Elizabeth Norton, CR, traveled from Castleton to instruct these women in New Jersey who have fulfilled the formation needed to make their promises so that they could be united spiritually to the Congregation according to the Rule approved for them by the Church. Rev. David Kashen, Order of Friars Minor Conventual, was the Celebrant and blessed the Crosses and Rule books they received as symbols of their commitment to the Risen Christ. They also received scarves which portray the Foundress of the Sisters of the Resurrection, Blessed Celine Borzęcka's beatification celebration which was held October 27, 2007 in Rome, Italy
