Notes from Fr PJ

Dear Friends in Christ,

Peace!

Our Mass at the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes in France was scheduled at 6:45 A.M. on August 4th. The day before that, I went to the Office for the arrangements. I expected things to be ready and set up.

I was wrong. I got there 15 minutes before the scheduled time. No sacristan was there. Since we have close to twenty pilgrims in attendance, who optionally signed up to participate that early, I resorted to Plan B. I went back to our hotel to get the needed materials for Mass, diverting to the kitchen to ask unashamedly for wine before a surprised hotel staff.

It took me fifteen minutes to get back to the grotto. As I was setting things up, I saw a religious sister, with palms up gesturing, "What the heck is happening here?" She was the Sacristan.

She beckoned me with her pointer finger and asked me to go to the Sacristy. She said something in Spanish—"no escrito" (nothing written). Apparently, their office did not inform her about the scheduled Mass. Of course, she was irked and was heaping her irritation on me. I was thinking to myself that it was not my fault. I had it scheduled, but she was not advised.

Calm down, I said in English. It's okay.

It was not okay for Sister Pointy Finger with a scowl. She had to cart this metal contraption containing the things we needed. She then set up the audio system and barked at the security officer to get the celebrant's chair from their storage. It was drizzling and the sun was not breaking through.

Then, we had the Mass. The time was ten after seven in the morning.

Fast forward: no homily (my fellow pilgrims were thankful), there was the ubiquitous collection and Sister Pointy Finger no longer had a scowl after I saw her again at the Sacristy. She smiled like a Cheshire cat, personifying Eucharistic Revival, as I thanked her for her help and assistance.

This is just a snippet of the days leading to my birthday, which you lovingly remembered with your gifts, prayers, cards and well wishes. I love the heartwarming video message from our 7:30 AM Mass goers. I smiled like Sister while viewing it.

Thanks again. Blessings and prayers for you and your loved ones!

Fr. PJ

The Eucharist - Source and Summit of our Catholic Faith

Christ promised to be with us always! And He is!! He is truly present in the Eucharist! Sometimes we Catholics can take this miracle, this awesome gift for granted. So, the Church, in her wisdom, has called together a National Eucharistic Revival!

There are numerous books that have been recently published to increase our faith in this true presence of Christ in the Eucharist. There are a number of podcasts on "formed.org" to watch as well. I'd like to encourage you to take advantage of the materials offered. You won't be disappointed!

Matthew Kelly said, in the book Beautiful Eucharist "I am lead to the conclusion that once we believe in the Eucharist we are given the grace to look beyond a bad homily; the grace to look beyond uninspiring music and the grace to look beyond music that elevates our hearts, minds, and souls. For it is beyond all of these things, way beyond all these things, that we find Jesus in the Eucharist."

We are scheduled to have the Eucharistic Miracles Exhibit here at St. Veronica starting May 15, 2024 for 2 weeks.

Miracles of the Eucharist are miraculous divine interventions that are aimed at confirming faith in the real presence of the body and blood of the Lord in the Eucharist. Please save the date!

Have a blessed week,
C. Wegner
