Antiphons for January 31 to February 5

Monday, January 31 – Memorial of St. John Bosco

E – Let the children come to me; do not prevent, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

C – Unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the Kingdom of Heaven, says the Lord.

Tuesday, February 1

E – Save us, O Lord our God! And gather us from the nations, to give thanks to your holy name, and make it our glory to praise you.

C – Let your face shine on your servant. Save me in your merciful love. O Lord, let me never be put to shame, for I call on you.

Wednesday, February 2 – Feast of the Presentation of the Lord/ Candlemas

E – Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

C – My eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples.

Thursday, February 3 – Optional Memorials of Saints Blaise and Ansgar

E – This holy man fought to the death for the law of his God and did not fear the words of the godless, for he was built on solid rock.

C – Whoever wishes to come after me, must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me, says the Lord.

Friday, February 4

E – The designs of his Heart are from age to age, to rescue their souls from death and to keep alive in famine.

C – Thus says the Lord: Let whoever is thirsty come to me and drink. Streams of living water will flow from within the one who believes in me.

Saturday, February 5 – Memorial of Saint Agatha

E – Behold, now she follows the Lamb who was crucified for us, powerful in virginity, modesty her offering, a sacrifice on the altar of chastity.

C – The Lamb who is at the center of the throne will lead them to the springs of the waters of life.

Notes from Fr. PJ

Dear Friends in Christ,

Peace and Joy to you and your family!

After Mass one Sunday morning, a parishioner was talking to his priest. He noticed that the priest had cut his self while shaving and so he asked him about it. "Well," the priest said, "I was concentrating on the sermon I was planning to give and accidentally nicked my chin." "Father," the guy said, "Next time, please concentrate on what you are doing and cut your sermon instead."

Ouch! The truth. Sometimes, we find it difficult to handle, or accept.

This is the scenario in this weekend's Gospel. Jesus was giving his "inaugural address" in his hometown. His friends and townmates were fully attentive to him. They spoke favorably of him, until Jesus told them a truth they did not want to hear. Our good Lord reminded them of two events in Jewish history: one was during the life of Elijah, when hunger was all over the land; the other was the story of Elisha, when leprosy spread throughout their land.

For Jews at that time, these events were not kosher. They did not like to hear about them. They had come to believe that they were God's chosen, that non-Jews were damned, that they had a monopoly on God.

The problem comes when we are confronted with a truth that requires us to change—to change our attitudes toward people of other races, to change the way we behave, to change our patterns of living. Not many can accept change in their lives. Not many are willing to change.

The people of Nazareth realized what they were facing. If it was true that God cared for non-Jews, for Gentiles, then it was likewise true that they had to do the same. Well, they had no intention of doing that!

So, how do we humans react when faced with such a confronting reality, when we are challenged to change our behaviors? We kill the messenger. If you are in a court trial, make the prosecutor and the police look either as bullies or fools. Destroy the witnesses by discrediting them or by ruining their reputations.

If the message you are hearing upsets you, destroy either the content of their message or destroy the messenger. They tried to do that to Jesus, as we have read, listened and heard during this weekend's Gospel.

However, there is an alternative response to unexpected changes in our lives, to confronting hard and difficult realities. I won't tell you what that response is in this note, but I tell you where that can be found. It is in our Second Reading for today. Hope you have the time to read it. Hope you have the resolve to do it. Hope you be blessed in what you need.

Blessings and prayers,

Fr. PJ

The Parish of St. Veronica offers a warm welcome to Phil Thompson, a longtime parishioner of St. Veronica parish and member of the Howell community since 1980. Phil's introduction to the community will take place the weekend of Feb. 12 and 13. Phil will be installed as an acolyte 2 days later on February 15th at St. Anne's Church in Lawrenceville NJ. Due to Covid this will be a private and closed ceremony. Please keep Phil in your prayers as he continues his journey toward becoming a permanent deacon.

The power of prayer!

PRAY FOR HEALING ©JPPC

The Parish Family of St. Veronica is saddened by the passing of our beloved weekend associate Fr. Bill O'Brien who died on January 11, 2022.

Fr. Bill was ordained as a priest in 1961 and served for many years as Campus Minister at Fairleigh Dickinson University where he led the "Community of God's Love" and was active in the Charismatic Renewal movement in the Archdiocese of Newark.

In his retirement, we were blessed to have Father Bill as our Weekend Associate, celebrating one or two Masses with us each weekend for the past 15 years. We will always remember Fr. Bill as a loving priest, greeting us with a smile each week and with a warm, thought provoking message during each homily. Last year, we were privileged to celebrate Father's 60th anniversary as a priest!

May he rest in God's eternal embrace.

St. Veronica's Parish Family wishes to welcome those who have become members through the Sacrament of Baptism.

Thomas Joseph, Jr., son of Thomas and Donna Lucek
Ava Grace, daughter of Daniel and Alicia Cacicia

Thank you for the gift of life.

Journeying Together through the Synod

Sharing Your Own Experience

Listening to Everyone

The author James Joyce is known for describing the Catholic Church as "here comes everybody!" We hope the next few months will be a time for great listening – listening among those who are active within the parish, and those who are no longer engaged; those who attend Mass regularly and those who don't feel welcome. Our stories are sacred. They demonstrate how God works in each of our lives to bring about His plan. This Synod process invites us to stand in the shoes of another and learn from the story that they share.

Please pray for the success of the synod process.

What is National Catholic Schools Week?

National Catholic Schools Week is the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. It starts the last Sunday in January and runs all week, which in 2022 is January 30 – February 5.

The theme for the National Catholic Schools Week 2022 is “Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed.”

Schools typically observe the annual celebration week with Masses, open houses and other activities for students, families, parishioners and community members. Through these events, schools focus on the value Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our church, our communities and our nation.

On February 2nd, the Church celebrates the Presentation of the Lord, forty days after Christmas. Also called Candlemas because there is a tradition of blessing candles and distributing them to the faithful on this day, the Feast of the Presentation recalls when the infant Jesus was taken to the Temple by his parents according to Jewish custom (See Luke 2: 22-39). Jesus, like every first-born Jewish son, had to be redeemed; Joseph and Mary had to either pay five shekels or give a sacrifice of two pigeons.

In the temple, an old man named Simeon is waiting, for he has been promised that he will not die before seeing the Messiah. The Holy Spirit allows Simeon to recognize the long-awaited Messiah in the Baby Jesus as he calls him “a light to the Gentiles, and the glory of His people Israel.”

Do we recognize Jesus in the Tabernacle when we enter the church? In the Sacred Host we are offered at Communion? In the person of the priest as he changes the bread and wine into Christ’s Precious Body and Blood? In our fellow Catholic worshippers who carry Christ within them, because they have received Jesus in Holy Communion.

Something to think about!

Learn. Serve. Lead.
Succeed:
Catholic Schools
Week 2022

A message from Bishop
David M. O’Connell, C.M.

Every generation has the obligation and responsibility to educate the next generation. That involves the teaching of subjects like math and science, language and literature, history and health, among others.

In public discourse, there is much discussion about the efficacy and success of public school systems throughout the United States. It is frequently the fodder for political debate, although politicians often seem to forget about it once the election is over. Citizens pay taxes to support our public schools with mixed results. Some public schools have excellent success rates, teaching well and graduating their students, while others seem incapable of digging themselves out of the hole of consistent disappointment and failure.

We are called to Educate

St. Blaise was a 4th Century bishop, who was martyred because he would not deny his faith.

St. Blaise healed a boy who was choking because he had a fish bone caught in his throat.

Because of this story, St. Blaise is invoked against ailments of the throat.

It is a Catholic tradition to have our throats blessed on the feast day of St. Blaise, February 3rd.

Two candles are crossed around the throat and this blessing is prayed:

Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Please Join us on February 3rd at the 12:00PM Mass for the Blessing of the Throats
