Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter, April 24

Divine Mercy Sunday is based on the private revelations of St. Faustina Kowalska who was canonized by St. Pope John Paul II in 2000 at which time the devotional practices were already popular in many communities. Among the practices associated with the devotion are its novena, the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy (a series of prayers organized similarly to a rosary), the Hour of Great Mercy (a time of prayer traditionally celebrated at 3 p.m.), and the plenary indulgence granted to those who receive the Eucharist and celebrate reconciliation on Divine Mercy Sunday.

Divine Mercy Sunday Devotion
April 24, 3:00 pm

The Divine Mercy Novena began on Good Friday, April 15th, after the outdoor Stations of the Cross. The Novena will conclude Divine Mercy Sunday at 3PM..

"I realize more and more how much every soul needs God's mercy throughout life and particular, at the hour of death. This Chaplet of Divine Mercy mitigates God's anger as He himself told me." St. Faustina

We are so grateful to all the volunteers who helped prepare the church for Easter Sunday and for the donations that made it possible to brighten the church this Easter season. Many helpers worked together to finish decorating early. They did an amazing job!! All of the "regulars" who've been doing this for years were so pleased with the willingness of all and the "youth" participation to get the job done. Several confirmation candidates picked up some service hours too. It was a good day!

Stewardship Prayer

My Parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly, if I am. It will be holy, if I am. Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them. It will do great work, if I work. It will be prayerful if I pray. It will make generous gifts to many causes, if I am a generous giver. It will bring others into worship, if I invite and bring them in. It will be a place of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, of compassion, charity, and mercy, if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things. Therefore, with the help of God, I now dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be.
Amen

The parish is looking for picture takers.

500th Anniversary of Christianity in Philippines

Saturday, April 30, 2022, 10:30 AM
Co-Cathedral of St. Robert Bellarmine

To mark that anniversary and its impact on the Diocese of Trenton with its vibrant Filipino communities and priests, Bishop O'Connell, C.M., will celebrate Mass. Reception will follow in the parish hall.

Read more here: <https://trentonmonitor.com/Content/News/Diocese/Article/Co-Cathedral-Mass-planned-to-recognize-500-years-of-Christianity-in-Philippines/4/36/30293>

Bishop O'Connell will be joined by Father Mark Nillo, Catholic Chaplain of Monmouth University and parochial vicar in St. Michael Parish, West End. Other priests assisting at the April 30 Mass will be Father Peter J. Alindogan, pastor of St. Veronica Church, Howell; Father Ariel Robles, pastor of Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish, West Trenton; Father Joe Noche, pastor of Our Lady Queen of Peace Parish, Hainesport; and Father Gene Daguplo, pastor of St. Raphael-Holy Angels Parish, Hamilton.

Celebrating this 500 year anniversary "means a lot to the Filipino community," said Father Alindogan. "I think it's an affirmation of all their efforts, of what we've been doing in Trenton," he said, referring to the many traditions and devotions among Filipinos of the Diocese. "The effort ... makes it a real celebration of their faith; without our faith and friendships with other Filipinos, we wouldn't be able to survive."
