Notes from Fr. PJ

Dear Friends in Christ,

Peace and Blessings to you and your family!

Ten years ago, Covid-19 was unheard of, gas prices were pegged averagely at $2.92 and Hurricane Sandy struck in October. It was also a decade ago when our parish celebrated half a century of grace and blessings, as the Jubilee Yearbook, published that year, phrased it.

A lot of things and events have transpired since then. Sadly, most of them were goodbyes, less were hellos. Deaths, transfers, relocation changes were the big factors. The weekly look into the history of our Parish Family, as documented by the Yearbook, named those 50 Years aptly and considerably—Window to the Past.

Our past ten years were punctuated by mergers and divisions, co-sponsorships and closures, breakings and healings. It had been a roller coaster ride of spiritual emotions, as we are laden by familiar and familial ties, perhaps burdened by fragile and wavering relationships. It was beyond our expectations, albeit our dreams and hopes were still stilled and calmed by hands folded in prayer.

Now, this is our Present. We have our Window to our Future.

This is an opportunity for us, as a parish family and community, to strengthen each other in moments of weakness and disillusionment, to care for each other amid all our worries and pains, to comfort each other in facing our trials and unavoidable challenges. This is a blessing for us to be of one mind and one heart--that our differences might keep us apart, but it could never untie the unity within us. This is God's moment of grace reminding us that all the breakings and the healings needs to have a closure and an opening--a better life, a newer kind of spiritual living, a community made fuller by jubilees and anniversaries, that are parts and plans of God's caring and saving actions.

Those six decades of Healing, Offering, Worshiping, Evangelizing, Living and Loving are key considerations. Those years have been our windows to our past. Those years will be the windows of our future.

You are blessed to be part of St. Veronica's Parish, as I am, too. May we continually have the Face of Christ, through the sacred veil of our patroness, St. Veronica, in our hearts and souls.

Happy 60th and more!

With my prayers,

Fr. PJ

60th Anniversary Prayer

Loving Father,
we thank you for blessing
our Parish Community and our Families, as we celebrate sixty years of faith, ministry, and service.

You have helped us carry in our hearts
the face of your Son, Jesus, just as our patroness
Saint Veronica once did so lovingly.

The guidance of your Holy Spirit has brought us a renewed sense of commitment to our faith and made us more zealous in life, service, and ministry.

You are continually leading us to a deeper understanding of unity, compassion, and forgiveness.

Mindful of our past weaknesses and future challenges, we ask you to strengthen us when we feel weak, embolden us when we are disillusioned, and keep us in your care amid all our fears and anxieties.

We ask you to comfort us in our pains, fortify us in our trials
and ever be with us in this pilgrimage of earthly life.

We ask you this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.
Amen.

Why is the Eucharist so important for the Church today?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church

I. THE EUCHARIST - SOURCE AND SUMMIT OF ECCLESIAL LIFE

1324 The Eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian life."¹³⁶ "The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself, our Pasch."¹³⁷

1325 "The Eucharist is the efficacious sign and sublime cause of that communion in the divine life and that unity of the People of God by which the Church is kept in being. It is the culmination both of God's action sanctifying the world in Christ and of the worship men offer to Christ and through him to the Father in the Holy Spirit."¹³⁸

1326 Finally, by the Eucharistic celebration we already unite ourselves with the heavenly liturgy and anticipate eternal life, when God will be all in all.¹³⁹

1327 In brief, the Eucharist is the sum and summary of our faith: "Our way of thinking is attuned to the Eucharist, and the Eucharist in turn confirms our way of thinking."¹⁴⁰

Jesus said: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; if any one eats of this bread, he will live for ever; . . . he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life and . . . abides in me, and I in him" (Jn 6:51, 54, 56).

"Take; this is my body"

—Mark 14:22

The presence of Christ in the Eucharist is real, true, and substantial.

"Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love." (St. John Paul II, Dominicae cenae, no. 3)

"It is called: Eucharist, because it is an action of thanksgiving to God."
(CCC, no. 1328)

Eucharist "makes present the one sacrifice of Christ the Savior." (CCC, no. 1330)

Spotlight of how ACA contributions are used in the Diocese of Trenton to Know Him

What is Catechesis? “The definitive aim of catechesis is to put people not only in touch but in communion, in intimacy, with Jesus Christ: only he can lead us to the love of the Father in the Spirit and make us share in the life of the Holy Trinity.” Catechesi Tradendae, 5

The Diocesan Department of Catechesis promotes knowledge of the faith, liturgical education, moral formation, education in prayer, education for community life and missionary initiation in the church through its catechetical ministry in parish religious education programs, Catholic schools, and the training and formation of Catechetical Leaders and catechists.

The Diocesan Department of Catechesis assists the bishop in proclaiming the Gospel through the Religious Education activities of the diocese. Their mission is to support life-long growth in faith for children, youth, and adults and to help them grow as disciples.

Why give to the ACA? Parishioners are asked to provide essential financial support to Diocese of Trenton who then in turn supports the parishes in many areas of life from clergy support, business matters, training, formation, outreach, evangelization, school scholarships, pastoral care, etc... The ACA also supports vital ministries that provides the spiritual, emotional and physical needs of parishioners and the community. Every ACA dollar goes to support the many diocesan programs and ministries which provides services to the parishes, diocesan organizations, and the community.

Parish offices are moving to the school building which will be the new Parish Center.
